VII ECPD INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL ON CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASES

with the main topic

RISK FACTOR CONTROL, DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT OF CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASES

(Miločer, July 6–10, 2015)

It is our pleasure to invite you to participate in the VII ECPD International Summer School of Cardiovascular Disease (hereinafter referred to as: School).

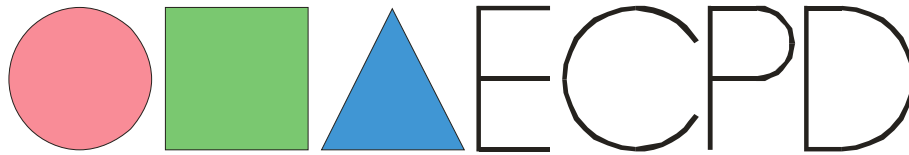

The European Center for Peace and Development University for Peace established by the United Nations (ECPD) traditionally organizes this Summer School with the aim to advance the knowledge of primary care providers, specialists in cardiology and other specialties in the latest technological and research developments, and guidelines for prevention and treatment of cardiovascular diseases. The five-day program will focus on the latest research, technological advances and case study review as well as discussion on the guidelines and latest treatment options regarding the prevention, early detection and management of cardiovascular diseases. The School is intended for primary care doctors and specialists (cardiologists, endocrinologists, internists, pediatricians, etc.).

Co-Directors of the School are Prof. Dr. Nathan Wong, University of California, Irvine, USA and Academician Prof. Dr. Miodrag Ostojić, SANU, Belgrade. Secretary General of the School is Prof. Dr. Duško Vulić, School of Medicine, University of Banja Luka.

The School is accredited by the European Board for Accreditation in Cardiology (EBAC) with 23 CME credits for the participants.

Despite the guidelines for the treatment of acute coronary syndromes, heart failure, atrial fibrillation, and prevention of cardiovascular disease, many patients, especially in the South Eastern European region remain inadequately treated for risk factors, acute coronary syndromes, heart failure, or atrial fibrillation and adherence to treatments is not optimal. Recent surveys from EUROSPIRE III and EUROASPIRE IV show that many persons with pre-existing coronary artery disease are not on the recommended therapies and there are significant differences in treatment patterns between regions, even within a limited geographic region such as the South Eastern European region. Data often show that while treatment of individual risk factors may be adequate, combined treatment and goal attainment of multiple risk factors, such as LDL-C, blood pressure and A1c levels together in those with diabetes is often insufficient, requiring implementation of systematic efforts addressed to all required risk factors both in primary and in secondary prevention.

Program of this School will cover the following topics:

- ❖ Epidemiology and prevention of cardiovascular diseases (CVD)
- ❖ Non-invasive cardiology and imaging
- ❖ Atrial fibrillation and heart failure
- ❖ Treatment of acute coronary syndrome and interventional cardiology
- ❖ Pathogenesis of atherosclerosis and rehabilitation of cardiovascular diseases

Learning Objectives

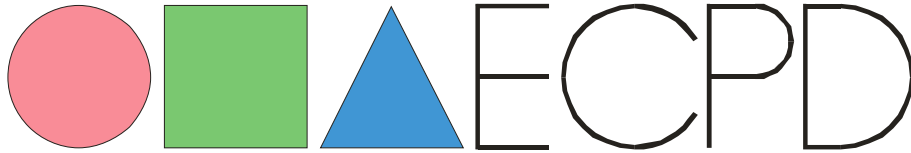

- Understand the pathogenesis of coronary artery disease
- Understand the latest clinical trial evidence and the latest therapies for lipid management
- Discuss the latest clinical trials and guidelines for management of hypertension
- Discuss the potential role of HDL-cholesterol and emerging therapies
- Understand the connection between metabolic syndrome, diabetes and CVD and the guidelines for cardiovascular risk reduction in such patients.
- Understand the evidence-based guidelines for the prevention of CVD in youth and adolescents
- Understand the role of comprehensive lifestyle management in the prevention of CVD
- Understand the guidelines for secondary prevention and management of coronary artery disease
- Understand the latest modalities and evidence-based guidelines for the screening and risk assessment of asymptomatic adults

- Understand the latest modalities and evidence-based guidelines for treatment of atrial fibrillation (AF)
- Discuss the new options and dosing strategies for oral anticoagulants in AF
- Discuss the new options for improving DAPT and stent implantation
- Understand the latest modalities and evidence-based guidelines for the treatment of heart failure
- Understand the latest modalities and evidence-based guidelines for treatment of acute coronary syndromes
